The U.S. held its own against great odds in the XX Olympiad. Swimmer Mark Spitz did the impossible! Never before had any athlete entered seven events and won seven Gold medals. A distinct world's record. Although not a Gold medal winner, golf-capped Dave Wottle won the hearts of the nation in the 1500 meter run. The U.S. cage team and its boxers showed up well.

The Year Of The Big Games

In the election Olympics of 1972, incumbent President Richard M. Nixon picked up all the marbles, winning over George McGovern in a record-setting landslide victory. Not so fortunate was incumbent Illinois governor Richard Ogilvie. He lost in a tight race to walkin' Dan Walker. In a straw vote at school, L-P students called these shots exactly the way the nation and state voted.

The world was deeply shocked and saddened by the senseless murder of Israeli athletes at the Olympic site in Munich by the Black September mob of Arabs. They were dubbed the "Barbaric Games" of the XX Olympiad.

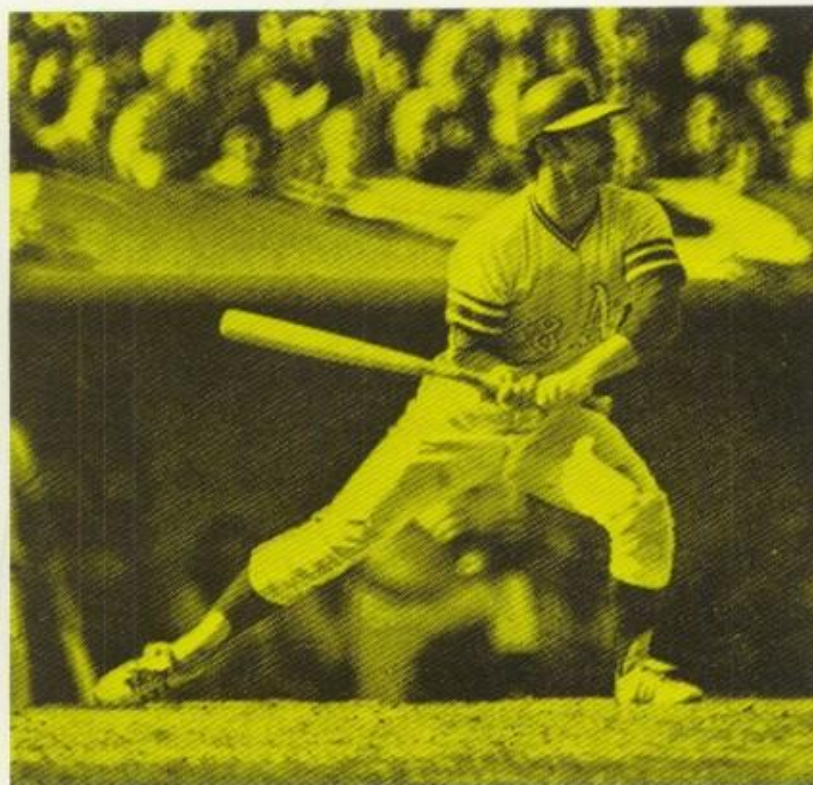

Robert James Fischer played a game of strategy and nerves to defeat Russian grand champion Boris Spassky on the chess board, and bring the U.S. its first world chess title. The 29-year old Fischer put it this way: "Chess is like a war on the board".

As L-P Studied, They Reached For The Brass Ring

George McGovern picked up a Silver medal in the political games in his effort to unseat President Nixon.

Charlie Finley's Oakland Athletics, with flowing manes and mustaches and Gay Nineties uniforms, took the World Series in seven games against the highly-touted Cincinnati Reds. Catcher Gene Tenace was a standout for the A's with four series homers.

This was the first year for Joe Marini as Cavalier head football coach. L-P students went to the movies to see "Needle Park" and "The Godfather" and took to "Jonathan Livingston Seagull" for their leisure reading. The driver ed classes were observing the new visual highway markers. And, the sign below greeted students on opening day, 1972.

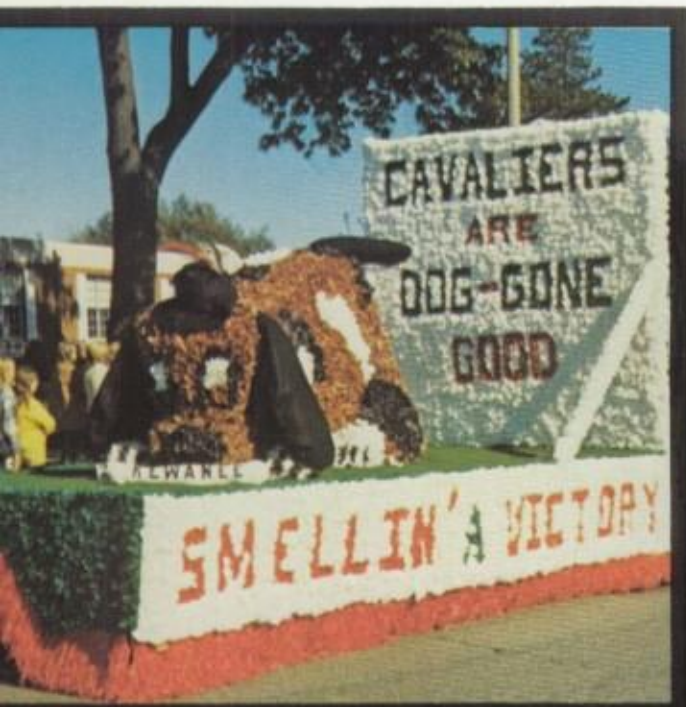

GIVE A DAMN!

Our high school building was given new sparkle — sandblasting and tuck-pointing — the first in 25 years. Students played more chess than ever, rode more bikes to school than ever, and watched more TV than ever. Meanwhile, they worried about and worked for Ecology, too.

The super-week that was: as a community watched, the high steppin' Columbus Day parade ... everyday dress-up days with clowns, kids and dandies roamin' the halls ... a chock-full-of-talent Variety show in a chock-full gym ... dramatic moment of decision when Queen Linda was handed her white bouquet ... an old-fashioned, heart-warming bonfire ... the best Pep rally ever just hours before a mighty Cavalier win over Kewanee ... card section/tunnel/Cavalette/confetti/band half-time extravaganza ... big dance dinner ... a million memories of our Happy Together week that was!

Homecoming '72

Tempo
Of Our Times

You're among a well-travelled crowd at L-P! ABOVE: Our 1972 "It's Academic" team journeyed all the way to the Windy City last October to tape a TV show, telecast later in November. Other L-P students travelled further. MIDDLE: AFS student Jose Antonio Nunez Herrera from Seville, Spain. RIGHT: And, here is Kamani Saparamadu writing a greeting in her native language. This AFS student hails from Kurunegala, Ceylon. And, finally, this little cartoon should remind us that our own Caryn Mis travelled to Turkey last summer to visit a wonderful AFS family there.

A new Student Handbook was published this year and there were changes in students and in services. ABOVE: The Dean's offices were made more homey with the addition of carpeting. That's Mr. Rogers choosing up-sides with the installer and a roll of colorful carpeting. BELOW: Bike hikes were a popular activity. Mrs. Loebach's G.A.A. group headed for Ladd on this one, directly to Torri's ice cream parlor to re-fuel for the return trip. BOTTOM: Students residing closer to the school were permitted to ride school buses on a shared-cost basis. Jim Stangel, Lynn Duffy, Bonnie Klein, Mary Kuetzer, Lucy Kuetzer and Becky Young found the new service especially valuable during cold winter days.

Our Ever-lovin'
Seniors

Class of '73 . . .

There was a mark of "happy togetherness" about these nearly six hundred students, who worked, played, planned and grew together — on and off campus. The Class of '73 introduced its own brand of greatness as it moved up and across the life that is L-P. And, these were its senior officers: Nancy Fitch, vice president; Janet Kasza, program chairman; Debbie Bartlett, social chairman; Mark Fiorentini, president; Rosie Ricci, secretary; Terry Happ, sgt-at-arms; Lauren Kirkman, treasurer and Mark Knoblauch, sgt-at-arms.

Call us "Sophomores"

Last year's "largest Freshman class ever". Next year's Juniors. This is one class with zest enough for two. Appreciate the Class of 1975 — its kind comes along once in a school-time!

Your Sophomore class officers:
SEATED, Lisa Olivero, president;
Julie Terrando, sgt.-at-arms;
Mark Klinefelter, treasurer.
STANDING, Myra Ferrari, program chairman; Mary Taylor, vice-president; Mary Jean Popu-rella, secretary; Kay Halm, sgt.-
at-arms, and Jennifer Morel, social chairman.

Class of "Seventy-five"

These four Sophomores represented L-P at the Area III Youth Driver Safety conference in November. They are Steve Kinsella, Don Ficek, Jennifer Morel and Ann Weber.

The new STUDENT HANDBOOK
charted rules & regulations for the Freshman class
— and all of us — to follow

RIGHT: We looked in the STUDENT HANDBOOK under "G" for gum and couldn't find any rules about chewing. So we guess Pat Scanlan can try her skill on the chicle. (Maybe we should have looked under "B" for bubble.)

TOP, BOTH PAGES: Scenes from the gala Homecoming '72 parade. RIGHT: 1972-73 Student Council officers: Mary Ann Klansek, secretary; Cheryl Hylla, vice president; Mary Kelly Duncan, sgt.-at-arms; Karen Huffstodt, treasurer; Ann Zukowski, president, and Tom O'Donnell, sgt.-at-arms. BELOW: Freshman representatives: Sue Hageman, Julie Goodwin, Lori Boehm, Pat Hebel, Jane Arkins, Kathy Sharpe. ADJOINING PAGE, LEFT: Melanie Washkowiak and Ann Weber hand-down Thanksgiving baskets to Mary Ann Klansek and Mary Kelly Duncan to be delivered to area families. RIGHT: Cheryl Sajnaj directs a question to a school board member during one of the regular Student Council/Administration/School Board meetings. Mary Ann Klansek, left, listens carefully.

This was an active year for your Student Council. It performed its regular functions with efficiency, took on new challenges and developed closer communication between students and administrators. The year was busy. The Student Council, hard-working. The results, gratifying.

Student Council Senior representatives: Sue Gribben, Ann Zukowski, Brian Allen, Kathy Kratz, Mary Alice Lund, Peggy Jansen and Karen Huffstodt.

Student Council Junior representatives: Mary Beth Ebener, Mary Ann Klansek, Tom O'Donnell, Randy Rundle, Cheryl Hylla, Mary Kelly Duncan.

Student Council Sophomore representatives: Debbie Janko, Lynn Duffy, Karen Krancic, Ann Weber, Melanie Washkowiak, Rick Adrian.

The Foreign Language club has F-U-N in four different languages: holiday parties, parade floats, foreign movies and travelogues. But the big event of the year is the International Banquet when buffet tables groan with hundreds of foreign delicacies and members eat their way "around-the-world". TOP, RIGHT: Oglesby members enjoyed the evening: Lori Oscepski, Janie Mozina, Cindy Kozel. MIDDLE: Native salads and meat dishes, breads and desserts — in endless quantity and variety — awaited the club. Magnifique! RIGHT: Officers of the 1972-73 Foreign Language club: Ann Weber, secretary; Cindy Heath, treasurer; Sue Swietek, president; Sue Bennett, vice president.

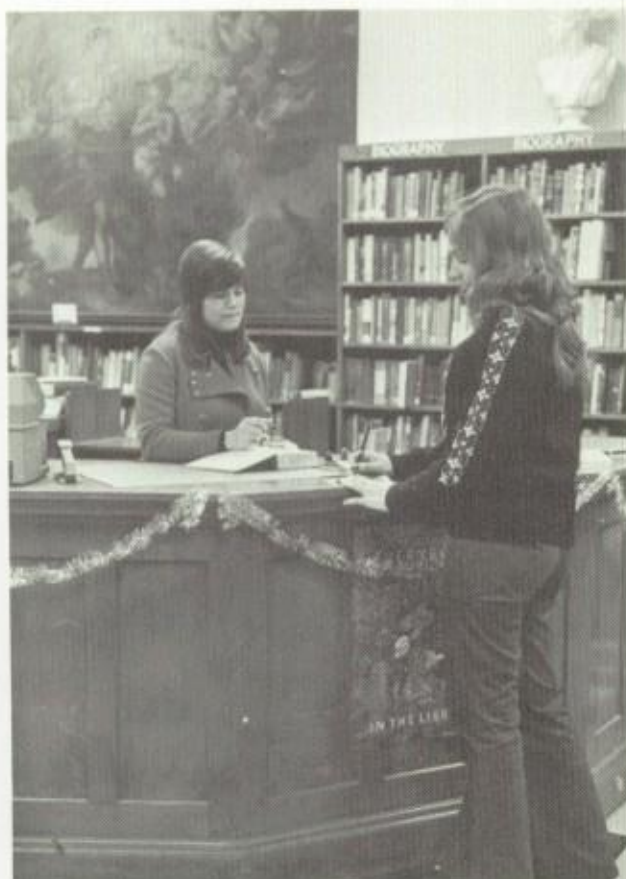

International Banquet

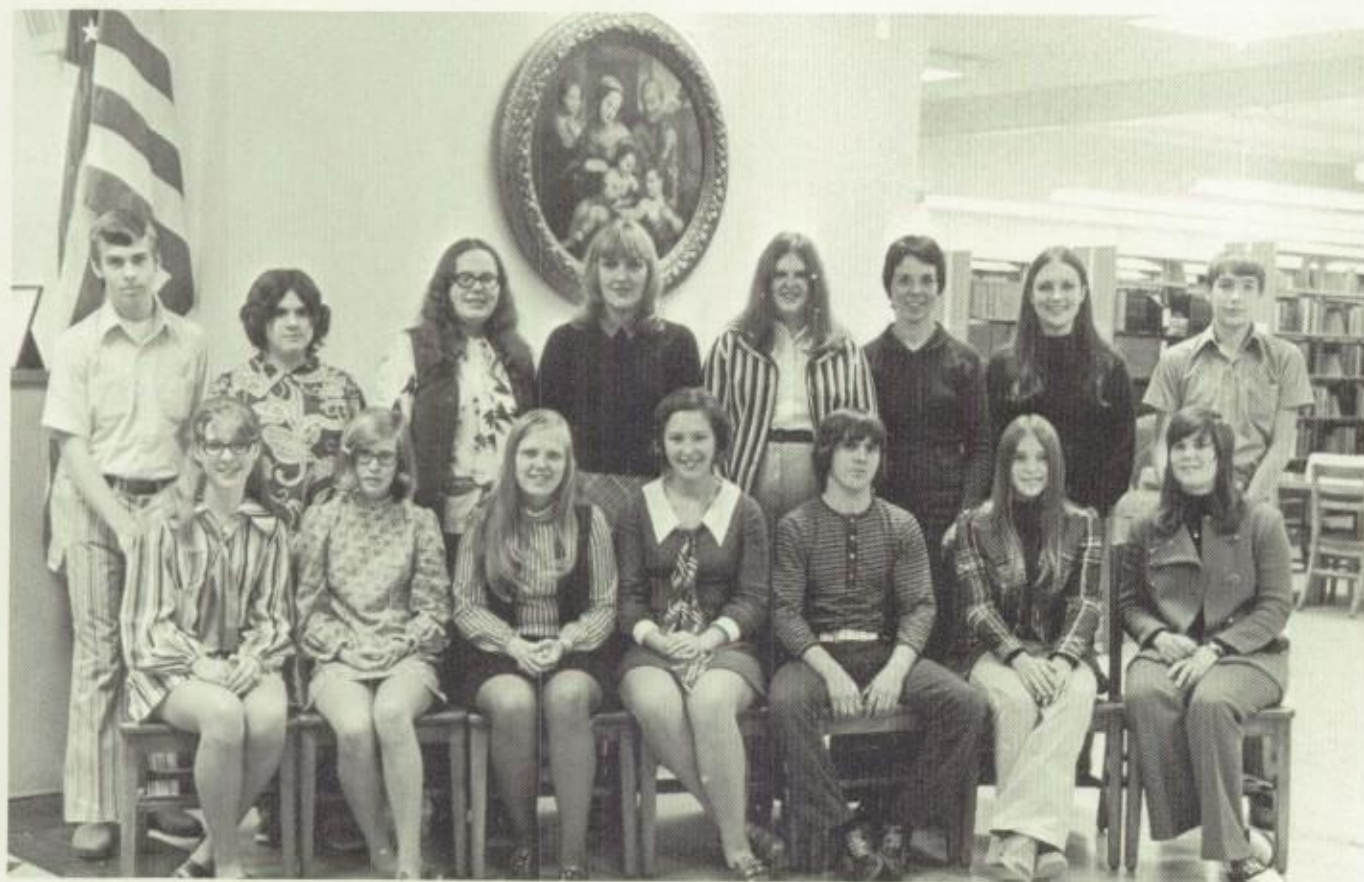

TOP: There were holiday songs at the International Banquet in French, German, Spanish and Latin. MIDDLE: There were honored guests: adult newcomers to the community from foreign lands, and AFS students from area high schools. LEFT: And, there were club sponsors and instructors from the Foreign Language department: Miss King, Mr. Hibben, Mrs. Ryan, Miss Cerri, Miss Decaroli, Mr. Strell and Mrs. Sisler.

CAVALIERS achieve a 6-4 for Marini's debut season

Coach Joe Marini concluded his first season at the helm of the Cavaliers with a 6-4 record, achieved with wins over East Aurora, Ottawa, Kewanee, Streator, Mendota and Peoria Limestone. On a pattern of alternate weeks, L-P lost to St. Bede, Sterling, Dixon and Kankakee Eastridge. While, perhaps, not a great year, it was a good year and individual Cavaliers attracted the attention of the Chicago Daily-News, which named John Skibinski to its All-State First Team and gave All-State Honorable Mention status to Mickey Carey, Joe O'Donnell and Jim Galassi. Junior quarterback Tim Voss ably filled the position of signal-caller left vacant through the practice-injury of Senior Steve Martuzzo for most of the season. And, 1972 saw a fresh look in Cavalier offense and a strong emphasis on defensive play — designed to please students and L-P football fans — and giving promise of finer things to come.

In raw figures alone, "Ski" was a machine. He carried 200 times for a net of 1,200 yards. His longest jaunt was 72 yards, which accounted for one of the eleven TD's he rammed across. Tailback John Skibinski scored 72 points in '72 and played a whale of a lot of defensive-half. And everybody liked what they saw on the field — the NCIC, the Chicago Daily News, his teammates and coaches, students and fans.

A Rocky Start a Roarin' Finish

The saga of the 1972 Inca football season has a "rags-to-riches" ring. The sophomore gridders bombed in their first four outings against East Aurora, crosstown rivals St. Bede, Ottawa and Sterling. Then, in a dramatic reversal, the Incas caught fire and scorched seven opponents in a row — blanking the Morris JV's, Kewanee and Mendota. Playing important roles in the comeback drive were Dennis Patterson (MVP), who exploded for 15 touchdowns and 6 extra-points, and defensive standouts, Bill Brown and Jeff Marynus, elected co-captains by their teammates at season's end.

The 1972 AZTECS Charge off the Field After a Perfect Season

For the second straight season, the L-P Aztecs have rung-up a glossy 8-0 record, scoring 274 points to their opponents 74. Head coach Joe Vasquez and assistants Joe Skibinski and Jeff Novak worked long and hard with freshmen from Day-One, when (ABOVE) Mike Pinn, Bill Manley and Jim Briddick picked up their equipment. And it paid-off! Otis Dungan, Marty Reardon and Scott Piecha were named tri-captains by their teammates at season's end. And, it ended as another big-year for the Aztecs.

Keith Harvey Most Valuable Player for AZTECS '72

Traditionally, freshman football is a recruit training program — individuals learning fundamentals, learning to play as a unit. Usually, there's little room for a single player to stand-out. Still, on 116 carries, Half Back Keith Harvey chewed-up 1443 yards in eight games for 12.4 yards-per. Along the way, he scored nearly half his team's points: 134. Harvey (RIGHT) with Coach Vasquez was named MVP for the Aztec year.

Galassi was a middle linebacker on defense while Skibinski was an offensive tailback and a defensive half. LEFT: Seniors Mickey Carey and Don Domkoski. Carey, a wide receiver, was presented the William Pelkey Sr. award while Domkoski, an offensive guard and a defensive tackle, received the WLPO Lineman of the Year award.

Fuzzy: Smooth Runner

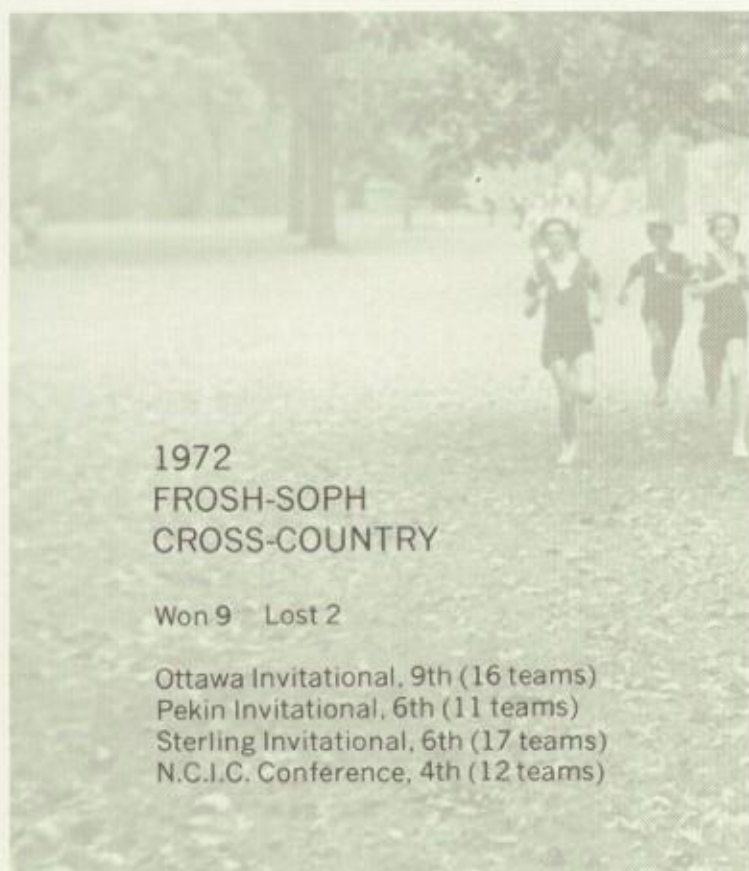

John Fusinatto has his eye set on bettering the marvelous record set on the Centennial Park course by Mike Smith in 1971. This past season was a giant stride in that direction.

Fuzzy tied Smith's record for the best time by a Junior on the L-P course with a time of 11:52. He beat 864 of his competitors and teammates while being overtaken by 80 runners.

Fuzzy already holds the school's best time as a Sophomore runner.

Smith ran the 2.5 mile course in the all-time record of 11:42 as a Senior. That's the big-one for Fuzzy in 1973.

L-P Cavaliers: a "Regional" Title and a 20-5 Record

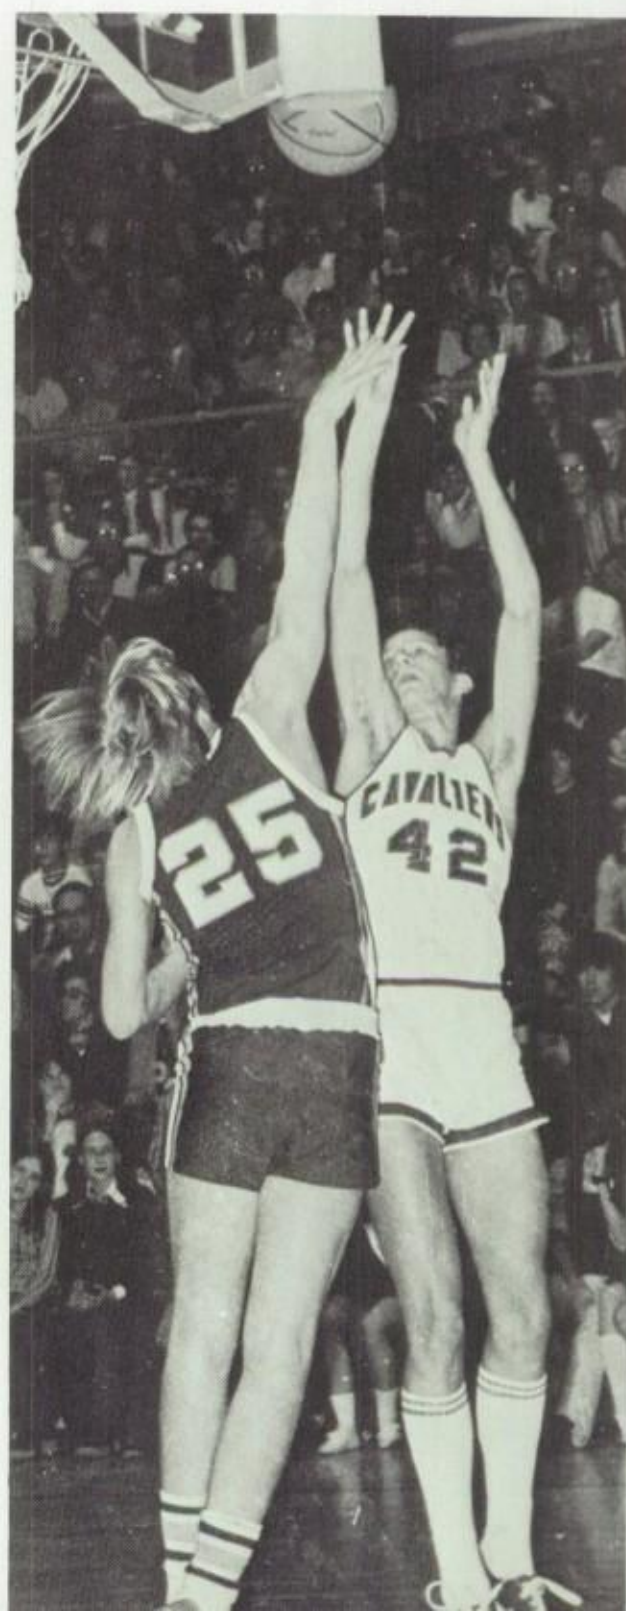

For sheer excitement, no Cavalier squad in years has been its equal: "cliff-hangers", "squeakers", "come-from-behind thrillers". And, the greater the rivalry — St. Bede, Ottawa, Mendota — the sweeter the win.

The Cavaliers were undefeated in NCIC competition, running a skein of conference wins to 26 over the past two season. Losses came early against Moline, East Moline and Glenbard West. Then they began to put it all together for an 18-4 record, building a 9-game win streak to wind-up regular season play. Wins over Morris and Ottawa in the Regional put the Cavaliers into the Sectional, where they stumbled 62-55 against a stronger Moline Maroon thrust.

But it was a fine season — a fun-season of thrill-a-minute, run-and-gun basketball.

1972-73 Cavaliers in "Instant Replay"

Happy Together

The day we put the '73 Ell Ess Pe to bed. All copy IN — all photographs, captions, comments. From here on, it was a printer's craft. No wonder, we're Happy Together: Sue Cudlip, Jane Ousec, Paula Lopatic, Alan Weber, Lynn Pearson, Nancy Bader, Judie Welgatt — Senior members of this year's staff.

Nancy (editor)
Al (Production Coordinator)

There seems to be a sameness about yearbook acknowledgements: generally, profuse "thank-yous to all those who have made this yearbook possible."

Without breaking with tradition, but applying a new dimension of "appreciation", let us acknowledge the contributions of:

- * all the laborers in the yearbook vineyard, who may be seen on Pages 126-172;
- * the student artists for original cover design and book illustrations, Peggy Jansen and Tom West;
- * the student photographers, Gary Kas-prowicz and Pete Esche;
- * News-Tribune photographers, Jim Robin-son, Dave Piccioli, Joe Marini, Jeff Green, for sharing their photos with us;
- * the commercial photographers for class pictures and informal shots of organiza-tions, Bob John Photography and M. Pryde Studio;
- * our contacts, Mike Gardner and Dorothy Bermejo of American Yearbook Co.; and cover-maker, Jack Bundy of S. K. Smith Co.;
- * those who did the "little things" that mean so much to make a yearbook better, and yet, unfortunately, remain anonymous . . .

To all, we're truly "Happy" that you worked so well "Together" on this year-book. Many, many thanks.
